- 8:45 a.m. Navigating the Complexities of Organizational Behavior in Insurance and Risk Management
Dr. Claire C. Muselman, Drake University
Organizational behavior, a critical field that examines organizational interactions and dynamics, is a key driver in achieving organizational goals. In this session, learn how behaviors and interactions impact the insurance and risk-management sectors.
- 10:15 a.m. Break with sponsors
- 11:00 a.m. A) Drugs in the Workplace: The Legalization of Marijuana
Steve McManus and Spencer Low, MVP Law
Come discuss all the issues facing employers with the legalization of marijuana and other drugs found in the workplace. Can and should employers still do post-employment, random, and post-accident drug tests? Learn the answers to these questions and more.
- B) VE Vehicle System: Vehicle Technology Overview
Kevin Haney, Rimkus
In this session, participants will learn about the sources of electronic data contained on vehicles including event data recorders (EDRs). Discover basic information about EDRs, the data they can record, and how this data can be used or misused in an accident reconstruction.
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch
- 1:00 p.m. A) Concussions in the Workplace: Evidence-Based Approaches to Diagnosis and Treatment
Dr. Kaylea Boutwell, Katalyst
In this session, participants will discover the critical importance of an accurate diagnosis, comprehensive evaluation, and effective treatment strategies for concussion injuries and will be better equipped to navigate the complexities of managing concussion cases.
- B) Reducing the Impact of Mass Shootings
Richard Spiers, Claims Consultant
There are many things to consider to help reduce number of mass shootings and to lower the number of injuries. Come learn these strategies and become current on recent case-law updates in Missouri and Kansas.
